

Travelling Sketchbook

A talk by an artist for artists, embroiderers and quilters

Sometimes they are just like snapshots. Sometimes jottings. Wherever I am I like to have my sketchbook.

Some sketches become ideas for further work, such as pastels or even a quilt. All aim to capture a scene, an object, or just a moment.

For me, sketching is the purpose of my artist's journey, and through my show and tell, I just want to encourage you to do the same.

You can contact me on

email mike@heatherleadesign.com website: www.heatherleadesign.com

Format: my talk lasts for about 45 minutes and is illustrated with enlarged prints from my travelling sketchbooks. I will also bring a selection of finished works a quilt, and some of my original A4 and A5 sketchbooks which can be viewed at the end of the talk.

I am available for bookings weekday evenings for venues local to the Derby area, or within a 50 mile radius at weekends. Please contact me if you would like to arrange a date. My fee is £75.00 plus travelling expenses.

Mike is a full time designer/artist for a manufacturing company, where he uses freehand drawing, photography and computer skills. He trained in engineering illustration and maintains his passion for 'drawing what he sees'.